

Application for a Compliance Audit of Election Campaign Finances 2022 Municipal Election

General Information:

Under the Municipal Elections Act, 1996 (“Act”), candidates, registered third-party advertisers, and contributors are bound by specific election campaign finance rules. Candidates and registered third-party advertisers must file provincially prescribed financial statements with the City Clerk outlining their campaign finance activities.

Any eligible elector who believes on reasonable grounds that a candidate or registered third party has contravened one or more of the election finance rules in the Act may submit an application for a compliance audit of the candidate or registered third-party's campaign finances.

Submitting a request for compliance audit:

All requests for a compliance audit must be submitted using this application form. A separate application form is required for each individual candidate or registered third party

Application forms must be submitted to the City Clerk in person during regular business hours.

Application Deadlines

For the 2022 Municipal Election, a request for a compliance audit must be filed with the City Clerk by:

1. June 29, 2023, for a candidate or third party advertiser who filed their financial statement by the 2 p.m. deadline on March 31, 2023
2. Within 90 days of the date on which a candidate or third party advertiser filed their financial statement if the statement was filed within 30 days of March 31, 2023; or
3. December 28, 2023 for a compliance audit of a candidate or third party advertiser who filed a supplementary financial statement (if applicable) by the September 29, 2023 filing deadline.

School Board Candidates

The Joint Compliance Audit Committee does not receive applications to audit school board trustee campaigns. For more information about compliance audits of school board trustee candidates, please contact the relevant school board.
